Enabling individuals to unlock their unique potential

Homework week	Main Challenge	Bonus task
23rd September 2019	Your main challenge for this half term is to produce a project based on the theme of 'Spanish Cinema'. You could create a poster, an Instagram page, a model/diorama, a newspaper article, video or PowerPoint based on this topic. You should aim to make your project as eye-catching and interesting as possible. You will need to submit your work during the week commencing 21/10/19 as directed by your Spanish teacher in order to showcase your work.	Create a poster in Spanish for your favourite film, using vocabulary related to cinema. Use vocabulary that we have been learning this term. Don't forget to include photos/ drawings to illustrate your ideas.
14th October 2019	You will be asked to prepare for your end of unit assessment. You will need to learn a short presentation about television and cinema to say to your Spanish teacher next week. This will be prepared in class and you will need to spend time learning the presentation at home.
11th November 2019	Your main challenge this half term is to create a resource for your classmates to use. Imagine you are going to teach the class part of a topic from this year, come up with an activity for a lesson on that topic Create a recap task, game or warm up for the class that could start a lesson. You will be asked to showcase your work during the week commencing 9/12/19 and your teacher will tell you what day to bring in your lesson resource.	Create a comic strip/storyboard in Spanish to present a short conversation between people using the past tense. Use pictures to illustrate what is happening in the dialogue. Take care with accents, punctuation and spelling.
2nd December 2019	You will receive a vocabulary list to learn off-by- heart in preparation for a spelling and meaning test in class next week. Aim to spend 10 minutes each day reading through your vocabulary list or perhaps prepare some flashcards to help you prepare for the spelling test.
16th December 2019	You will be given a list of 20 pieces of helpful vocabulary page in Spanish with the English translation to learn how to pronounce accurately. Your task is to record yourself saying these words (on your phone) or learn them to say to your teacher when you return after the Christmas holidays. Take care with pronunciation and make sure that you say the Spanish and the English meaning. Try to say the key words without reading from the page.
20th January 2020	Your main challenge for this half term is to produce a project based on the theme of 'The future'. You could create a poster, an Instagram page, a model/diorama, a newspaper article, video or PowerPoint based on this topic. You must use a different form of presentation to the one you chose for the first half term's project. You should aim to make your project as eye-catching and interesting as possible. You will need to submit your work during the week commencing 10/02/20 as directed by your Spanish teacher in order to showcase your work.	Create a revision mind-map based on the key vocabulary from this unit that we have covered so far. Ensure that key vocabulary is spelt correctly and that accents have been used accurately. Provide English translations and make it colourful.
3rd February 2020	You will receive a vocabulary list to learn off-by- heart in preparation for a spelling and meaning test in class next week. Aim to spend 10 minutes each day reading through your vocabulary list or perhaps prepare some flashcards to help you prepare for the spelling test.
2nd March 2020	Your main challenge for this half term is to produce a project based on the theme of 'Festivals in Spain'. You could create a poster, an Instagram page, a model/diorama, a newspaper article, video or PowerPoint based on this topic.	Produce 5 challenging quiz questions asking something such as 'How do you say…in Spanish?' and provide answers for each of your

	You should aim to make your project as eye-catching and interesting as possible. You will need to submit your work during the week commencing 23/3/20 as directed by your Spanish teacher in order to showcase your work.	questions so that you can test a classmate. Write the questions on a piece of paper/ cue cards/ type them on the computer and ensure that you provide the correct answers. Check accents and spelling.
16th March 2020	You will receive a vocabulary list to learn off-by- heart in preparation for a spelling and meaning test in class next week. Aim to spend 10 minutes each day reading through your vocabulary list or perhaps prepare some flashcards to help you prepare for the spelling test.
20th April 2020	Your main challenge for this half term is to produce a project based on the theme of 'Spain and the Hispanic World'. You could create a poster, an Instagram page, a model/diorama, a newspaper article, video or PowerPoint based on this topic. You should aim to make your project as eye-catching and interesting as possible. You will need to submit your work during the week commencing 18/5/20 as directed by your Spanish teacher in order to showcase your work.	Work with a partner and film yourselves interviewing each other in Spanish, using some of the key questions that we have covered this year. Take time to plan your questions and practise your responses before filming. You may wish to use some brief notes to help you. Aim to speak for 2/3 minutes.
11th May 2020	You will be given some materials to help you prepare for your End of Year assessments.
15th June 2020	You will be asked to prepare for your next speaking assessment. You will need to prepare responses to a role-play scenario to say to your Spanish teacher next week. This will be prepared in class and you will need to spend time learning your responses at home.
6th July 2020	You will receive a vocabulary list to learn off-by- heart in preparation for a spelling and meaning test in class next week. Aim to spend 10 minutes each day reading through your vocabulary list or perhaps prepare some flashcards to help you prepare for the spelling test.
13th July 2020	You will receive a holiday homework task to complete over the summer.
Useful resources and websites	EL MUNDO EL PAIS El Mundo/El País - Online newspapers · Website and App https://www.duolingo.com Languages Online – Caminos 3 and Grammar Sections https://www.lan-guagesonline.org.uk/

Homework map: Spanish

Year 9