

Curriculum Plan Key Stage 4

History

Academic year: 2020/21		Head of department: Miss Vose (c.vose@todhigh.co.uk)
Term 1
Year 10		Year 11
Britain: Health and the people: c1000 to the present day Part one: Medicine stands still. An overview of medical procedures and beliefs in the Middle Ages with a focus on the power of the Church. Part two: The beginnings of change. A look at how science came to the fore during the Renaissance period and began to progress medical thinking. Part three: A revolution in medicine. The course examines how science lead to the discovery of germ theory and the impact that had on the medical profession.		America 1920-1973 Opportunity and Inequality Part one: American people and the 'Boom'. An overview of how America got rich and the divisions that remained in society. Part two: Americans' experiences of the Depression and New Deal. An investigation into the different experiences of the Depression and the actions taken by the Government. Part three: Post-war America. The Rock and Roll generation, the Civil Rights movement and changes to American society.
Term 2
Year 10		Year 11
Britain: Health and the people: c1000 to the present day Part four: Modern medicine. The NHS, public health and alternative treatments. The course examines the increasing control of the government and looks at the power of modern science. Conflict and tension: the inter-war years, 1918–1939 Part one: Peace-making. This section looks at the peace treaty that ended the First World War, how it was drawn up and reactions to it. Part two: The League of Nations and international peace. This section looks at attempts to keep peace and control all nations, it considers both the successes and the failures of the League of Nations.		Britain: Health and the people: c1000 to the present day Part four: Modern medicine. The NHS, public health and alternative treatments. The course examines the increasing control of the government and looks at the power of modern science. Elizabethan England, c1568–1603 Part one: Elizabeth's court and Parliament This unit looks at the difficulties of a female ruler: relations with Parliament; the problem of marriage and the succession; the strength of Elizabeth's authority at the end of her reign. Part two: Life in Elizabethan times This unit examines the Golden Age of Elizabethan England. Was it or wasn't it? Part three: Troubles at home and abroad The Crises of religion and the impact that had on England. The Armada and exploration and all that came out of it.
Term 3
Year 10		Year 11
Part three: The origins and outbreak of the Second World War. This section of the course looks at the escalation of tension in Europe in response to Hitler's disregard for the Treaty of Versailles and the League of Nations.		Historic environment case study. Pre-release material.

Homework/revision
Year 10	Year 11
HW is set in accordance with the homework timetable and set on class charts. The advantage of class charts is that the students can have access to documents placed there by the teacher. Students are welcome to access computers in homework club if needed.	HW is set in accordance with the homework timetable and set on class charts. The advantage of class charts is that the students can have access to documents placed there by the teacher. Students are welcome to access computers in homework club if needed.
Assessment
Year 10	Year 11
Students complete formal assessments at the end of each half term covering the work covered up to date in that half term and any previous. The grade used for the data check is an accumulation of the results of these assessments. Students do at times complete practice assessments, informal assessments or pre-checks to help inform teaching.	Students complete formal assessments at the end of each half term covering the work covered up to date in that half term and any previous. The grade used for the data check is an accumulation of the results of these assessments. Students do at times complete practice assessments, informal assessments or pre-checks to help inform teaching.

How can parents and carers help?
Year 10	Year 11
Students are given a knowledge organiser each half term that they need to learn off by heart, please help test them on this.	Students are given a knowledge organiser each half term that they need to learn off by heart, please help test them on this.