

The 'Prevent' Strategy

The prevent strategy is nationwide and forms part of the Government's counter-terrorism strategy. 'Prevent' aims to stop people from becoming terrorists or supporting terrorism and each police force within the country has a unit which is focussed on the 'prevent' strategy.

West Yorkshire Police's Prevent unit have been into school to deliver training and to raise awareness to both students and staff.